Outlook

Assumptions HY2 2022

For HY2 2022, we expect:

- order entries and order horizons to further normalize
- production output and revenue growth still mainly limited by supply shortages
- gross margins to slightly increase by positive pricing effects and less extraordinary M&A effects (stock clearance), further material costs increases expected
- organization and thus HR and opex costs to increase over the course of the 2HY
- limited revenue and profit gains from newly acquired and established Basler Italy (~3 M€ revenue gain)

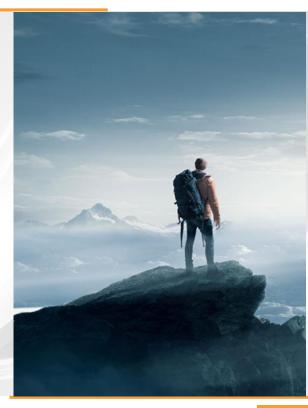

Outlook

Forecast 2022

Under these assumptions we confirm our guidance with a double digit growth and a sound profitability for 2022:

- Revenue € 235 265 mill.
- EBT-Margin 9 12 %

We will continue to hire and further scale up the organization in order to support our mid-term plan...
