From: Basler Product Management
Date: September 20th, 2021
Subject: Different Accessories End-Of-Life

Reasons for discontinuation:

Basler is continuously developing new products and their accessories; and we strive to clean up obsolete products. Because of the discontinuation of related camera families, we also discontinue the associated accessories. Furthermore, the limited availability of further accessories due to the discontinuation by the manufacturer leads to the discontinuation of the products. Please see detailed list below.
